

April Showers Bring May Flowers

Wednesday, 30 April 2008

Here we are already into May! While you're checking out my new picks for May, don't forget Mother's Day is May 11th.

Painting – Friends by Ingrid Bolton

Yeah!!!

Ingrid has created another "Friends" painting for us! The first was such a Big Hit she has been requested to make another one. Ingrid has a lot of magnificent paintings on display in our gallery. You must check out her other paintings in our "Artists" section. Especially now that spring is here! She has a the most wonderful flower paintings.

Pottery – Bacon Cooker by Patrick Shields and Janice Hall

Now this is a wonderful piece of functional pottery that Patrick and Janice created. This is the "Bacon Cooker"! This vessel is designed to catch the bacon grease. Just drape the bacon over the lip of the vessel and as it cooks the grease drains into the bottom. The bottom is designed with a pouring spout to may clean up a breeze. It can be used in the conventional oven or on the grill/smoker (place over indirect flame). So if you're watching your diet, cholesterol or just eating healthier this is the perfect bacon cooker. This is a perfect gift for someone who has everything! Please check out Patrick and Janice's other pottery in our "Artist" section.

Stain Glass – Red & Brown Lamp by Kitty Glass

You must see our new arrival from Kitty Glass! Here is an exquisite Stained Glass Lamp with very rich colors. This lamp sports a beautiful red, brown and white stained glass lamp shade with a bronzy brass base. We are talking one of-a-kind, handmade, exquisite craftsmanship! If you're looking to match your décor please check out Kitty's line of Stained Glass Lamps and other items in our "Artist" section.

Wood Working - Wine Rack Lamp by Robert Fisher

If you're looking for that rustic country look with a twist of sophistication here it is! This is a unique Wine Rack and Lamp all wrapped up in one. This is so creative! Robert went out on a limb for this one. The Wine Rack is made of Mountain Laurel Wood. This is a must have if you are looking for a nice conversation piece. This would be the hit of any wine party! Please check out Robert's other items in our "Artist" section.

Pottery - Whistles (Ocarinas) by Shirlee Frank

Shirlee has created a whole line of magical and truly unusual one-of-kind whistles also known as ocarinas. An ocarina is a small musical wind-instrument of terra cotta or other materials. It is very hard to a nice quality ocarina and Shirlee has certainly stepped up to plate on this one. They are enjoyed by all ages young and old alike. Keep these whistles in mind for that Birthday or Christmas list for the person that has everything. Please check out Shirlee's other items in our "Artist" section.

So take a look at our Artist's Inventory and give us call or email us for more photos or any questions you might have.

HAPPY SHOPPING!
