Pottery - Sponge Holder by R and B Pottery

My hats off to R & B Pottery for this wonderful discovery! They have created a cat sponge holder and a dog sponge holder. This has always been a hassle for me to find a place to put my dog's sponge that I wash his bowl with in a convenient hiding place so no one would come along and use the same sponge on our dishes. I love my animals but I don't want to share their sponge! YUCK! So get them while they last. Please check out R and B Pottery's other wonderful pottery pieces in the "Photo Gallery" section.
